Commitment

We, the people of Chettikulangara, which include 13 provinces or karas in the Chettikulangara region of Mavelikara and Karthikapally sub-divisions of Alleppey District, Kerala, India, hereby agree to support efforts of Kerala State and the Indian Government to get our annual float festival 'Chettikulangara Kettukazhcha' inscribed as an Intangible Cultural Heritage( ICH) element of UNESCO. We, Sree Devi Vilasom Hindu Matha Convention, the designated umbrella organization of 13 provinces of Chettikulangara and mandated to conduct all festivals related to our temple, hereby ensure our wholehearted commitment and support to get our festival 'Chettikulangara Kettukazhcha' inscribed as an Intangible Cultural Heritage ( ICH ) element of UNESCO. The nomination process was in detail discussed and was initiated after referendum among all the 13 provinces. We feel there is urgent need of such recognitions like inscription as an ICH element to ensure safeguarding the rich heritage and traditions of our festival and help it transmit to our next generations.
